

1. Line 129 through 132a:

129 (f) the court finds, in accordance with Subsection (8), that entering a judgment of 130 conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice[~~in accordance~~
131 ~~with Subsection (7)~~].

132 (7) (a) Upon a $\hat{H} \rightarrow$ joint $\leftarrow \hat{H}$ motion from the prosecuting attorney $\hat{H} \rightarrow$ [{ or }] and $\leftarrow \hat{H}$
132a the defendant, the court may

2. Line 133 through 142:

133 enter a judgment of conviction for a lower degree of offense than established by 134 statute if:

135 (i) the defendant, within one year after sentencing, provides substantial assistance in 136 the criminal investigation, arrest, or prosecution of another individual; Æ→ and

137 [~~{(ii) the prosecuting attorney consents to the reduction; and}~~]

138 {(iii)} ← the court finds, in accordance with Subsection (8), that entering a 138a judgment of

139 conviction for a lower degree of offense is in the interest of justice $\hat{H} \rightarrow$ and public
139a safety $\leftarrow \hat{H}$.

140 (b) In determining whether the defendant has provided substantial assistance under
141 Subsection (7)(a)(i), the court shall consider:

142 (i) the significance and usefulness of the defendant's assistance, taking into account