

1. Line 102 through 108:

102 (A) include the licensed driver's name, date of birth, and current residential 103 address; and
 104 (B) be made upon request by a county assessor.
 105 (ii) A county assessor may $\hat{\$}$ → [{ only }] $\leftarrow$ $\hat{\$}$ use information disclosed by the division
 105a under
 106 Subsection (3)(a)(iv) $\hat{\$}$ → only $\leftarrow$ $\hat{\$}$ for purposes of verifying a property owner's 106a eligibility to
 107 receive the residential property tax exemption authorized under Section 59-2-103.
 108 (4) (a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1)(a), the division may provide a "yes" or "no"

2. Line 458 through 463:

458 determine whether the owner is eligible to receive the residential exemption.
 459 (i) The requirements of this Subsection (11) do not apply to a county assessor in a
 460 county that adopts and enforces an ordinance described in Subsection (1).
 461 (12) A county assessor may $\hat{\$}$ → [{ only }] $\leftarrow$ $\hat{\$}$ use driver license information disclosed by the
 461a Driver
 462 License Division in accordance with Subsections 53-3-109(3)(a)(iv) and (e) $\hat{\$}$ → only $\leftarrow$ $\hat{\$}$
 462a for purposes
 463 of verifying a property owner's eligibility to receive a residential exemption.